THE MODERN WOODMEN.

Testimony Elicited in the Investigation of the Affairs of the Order that Lead to a Criminal Prosecution for Em-CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Times this morning says: The scandal that has agitated the members of the Order of Modern Woodmen of America for several years has culminated in a suit by Attorney-General Pavey against J. C. Root, the president of the order, and this suit has been on trial before Wm. A. Ward, of Whiteside County, masterin-chancery, at No. 180 South (Clark street. The hearing of evidence was accomplished with closed doors, but the testimony has been of such an unexpectedly sensational kind that despite the efforts to keep it quiet has become known. In the testimony it is showed. that through forged papers and excessive bills Root has defrauded the order of a sum estimated by members of the order at between $25,000 and $46,000, The court of inquiry adjourned yesterday upon the conclusion of the evidence for the prosecution. It is not known whether a defense will be attempted. In case there is none it is probable that criminal prosecution will be begun against Root at once. The developments and the probable criminal proceedings have created intense excitement among the members of the order, which may not be allayed until the full
